

It is very important to retain the No-Call-List for Indiana Hoosiers. There are more than enough ways in which companies and banks can advertise for business without calling people at home, anytime during the day or night. Junk mail through the USPS can be utilized and is less invasive to us. Thank you. Lucinda Raber, Lafayette, IN